June 7.—The twenty-seventh session of the State Normal School came to a close yesterday with the commencement exercises when 102 young women received their diplomas.

The commencement exercises began on Saturday, with alumnae day. The business session of the Alumnae Association took piace at half-past 4, with Mrs. Jean Boatwright, of Lynchburg, presiding, in the absence of the president, Miss Mary Schoffeld, of Alexandria. President Jarman spoke to the association concerning the proposed scheme of a student building, asking for pledges to the fund from the atumnee. Miss Ruth Redd, of Sutherlin, class of 1910, was elected president of the association for the coming year. The alumnae address was delivered by Dr. J. C. Metcalf, professor of literature, Richmond College, who spoke delightfully upon "Cambridge and Her College." This was followed by a brilliant reception, given by the school to the alumnae and graduating class, with their friends and guests.

At every other occasion the music was provided by the Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Agnes G. Perkins. Miss Mertie Edith McDonald was awarded the focus prize, offered to the senior who would make the most creditable contributions to the magazine from January to June. The graduating exercises took place Tuesday morning at half-past 10, opening with the hymn, "Mighty God, While Angels Bless Thes." by the audience, followed by an invocation by the Rev. Mr. Hill. After the salutatory address by Miss Louise Ford, second honor graduate, President Jarman introduced Richard Evelyn Byrd, Speaker of the House of the Virginia Legislature, who, as baccalaureate orator, addressed the class upon "Some Forms of Feminine Development," contrasting the women of the ancient civilizations of Egypt, Greece and Rome with those of to-day, and pointing out to the graduates their opportunity for contributing to further development. The Glee Club sang "No Evil Shall Befall Thee," by Coste, which was followed by Miss Myrtle Fownes, the fifst honor graduate, who delivered the valedictory address, speaking of "The Teacher as a Social Force." President Jarman then announced a gift of $100 to the Normal League by the graduating class had made pledges amounting to $1,000 to that.
